

REDACTOR

Meaning: Redactor: a person responsible for editing text to remove sensitive or confidential information before publication.

1. The redactor carefully removed all sensitive information from the final report.
2. As a redactor, her job was to ensure that confidential details were not disclosed in the publication.
3. The manuscript was returned to the author after the redactor made necessary edits for clarity.
4. In the age of information, a skilled redactor is crucial for maintaining privacy while sharing knowledge.
5. He took pride in being a redactor, knowing that his work safeguarded the integrity of the data.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redactor>