

REDARGUTION

Meaning: Redargution is the act of refuting or countering an argument, particularly by exposing its falsehoods.

1. Redargution is often employed in debates to counter false claims made by opponents.
2. In her essay, she used redargution to effectively dismantle the arguments of her critics.
3. The lawyer's redargution demonstrated a remarkable command of the evidence presented in the case.
4. During the discussion, his redargution brought clarity to the misconceptions surrounding the topic.
5. Redargution is a critical skill for anyone looking to engage in meaningful discourse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redargution>