

REDBACK

Meaning: Redback refers to a venomous spider (Latrodectus hasselti) native to Australia, characterized by its black body and red or orange stripe on the abdomen.

1. The redback spider is a well-known species native to Australia.
2. He spotted a redback in the corner of the garden, its distinctive markings easily recognizable.
3. Many people avoid areas where redbacks are common, especially during summer when they are more active.
4. In Australian folklore, the redback spider is often associated with tales of caution and survival.
5. The venom of the redback is potent, but antivenom is available for those who are bitten.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redback>