

REDDEN

Meaning: REDDEN: to become or cause to become red or to take on a reddish color.

1. The sunset began to redden the sky, casting vibrant hues across the horizon.
2. She felt her cheeks redden with embarrassment as she realized her mistake.
3. As the leaves changed colors in autumn, they would redden before falling to the ground.
4. The artist decided to redden the background of the painting to create a more intense atmosphere.
5. The team's success seemed to redden the faces of the players with pride and joy.
6. The evening sun began to redden the horizon as it dipped below the mountains.
7. Her cheeks would redden with embarrassment whenever he complimented her.
8. As autumn approached, the leaves started to redden, creating a vibrant tapestry of colors.
9. The artist chose to redden the canvas with bold strokes to evoke strong emotions.
10. His anger caused his face to redden, making it clear how upset he truly was.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redden>