

REDELESS

Meaning: REDELESS (adjective): feeling a profound sense of helplessness or despair, lacking hope or means to change a situation.

1. The child felt utterly redeless as he watched his favorite toy sink to the bottom of the lake.
2. After the devastating news, she sat in a redeless silence, unsure of how to respond.
3. In a redeless moment, he realized that he had lost everything he once valued.
4. The team appeared redeless after their unexpected defeat in the championship game.
5. Standing alone in the empty room, he felt a deep sense of redeless despair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redeless>