

REDEMPTIONER

Meaning: A redemptioner is a person who provides relief or liberation to others, often by alleviating debt or offering freedom from bondage.

1. The redemptioner offered a glimmer of hope for those burdened by debt.
2. In the tale, the redemptioner traveled through the village, promising freedom to the enslaved.
3. She worked tirelessly as a redemptioner, helping others find their way to a better life.
4. The concept of a redemptioner was central to the discussions about social justice in the early 19th century.
5. Many viewed the redemptioner as a savior, guiding lost souls back to stability and peace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redemptioner>