

REDIFICATION

Meaning: Redification refers to the process of redefining or reconstructing one's identity and sense of belonging in a changing social context.

1. The concept of redification challenges our understanding of identity and belonging in the modern world.
2. In her latest novel, the author explores the theme of redification through the protagonist's journey of self-discovery.
3. The redification of cultural symbols can lead to both empowerment and controversy within communities.
4. Scholars argue that redification plays a crucial role in how societies construct their narratives and histories.
5. Through the redification process, previously marginalized voices can gain recognition and influence in mainstream discourse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redification>