

REDIFY

Meaning: Redify (verb): To restore or revitalize something, especially by enhancing its appearance or condition.

1. The artist decided to redify the old mural to bring it back to life.
2. In an effort to redify the park, volunteers gathered to plant new trees and flowers.
3. The committee aims to redify the community center to better serve local residents.
4. To redify the outdated curriculum, the school introduced new technology and teaching methods.
5. They worked tirelessly to redify the neighborhood after the recent storm damage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redify>