

REDOLENT

Meaning: Redolent: strongly reminiscent or suggestive of something, often accompanied by a particular scent or fragrance.

1. The garden was redolent with the scent of blooming roses.
2. Her memories of childhood were redolent of warm cookies and fresh linen.
3. The old library was redolent of aged paper and leather bindings.
4. As he entered the room, it was redolent with the aroma of freshly brewed coffee.
5. The evening air was redolent with the fragrance of jasmine and night-blooming flowers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redolent>