

REDOUBT

Meaning: Redoubt: a fortified place or stronghold used for defense or a renewed effort to strengthen or improve a situation.

1. The general decided to establish a redoubt in the valley to better defend against the advancing army.
2. After the storm damaged the coast, the town council planned to redoubt their efforts on building a stronger seawall.
3. The ancient fortress served as a redoubt for the villagers during times of conflict.
4. In the face of criticism, she felt the need to redoubt her arguments with more evidence and clearer reasoning.
5. The scientists established a redoubt for their research team in the remote area to study wildlife without disturbances.
6. The medieval castle was a formidable redoubt against invading forces.
7. In the face of adversity, she found a redoubt in her friends and family.
8. The army established a redoubt on the hill to secure their position during the battle.
9. After the storm, the town turned to its redoubt, a shelter built to withstand harsh weather.
10. His home became a redoubt of creativity, filled with art and inspiration.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redoubt>