

REDOUBTABLE

Meaning: Redoubtable: inspiring fear or respect through being impressively powerful, formidable, or worthy.

1. The redoubtable warrior was feared by enemies and respected by allies alike.
2. Her redoubtable intellect set her apart in a field dominated by seasoned professionals.
3. Despite his small stature, the young athlete proved to be a redoubtable competitor on the track.
4. The redoubtable reputation of the scholar drew students from far and wide to his lectures.
5. In the face of adversity, her redoubtable spirit inspired those around her to persevere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redoubtable>