

REDOUBTING

Meaning: Redoubting: the act of questioning or having doubts about someone's loyalty or a decision previously made.

1. The general found himself redoubting the loyalty of his troops after the unexpected defeat.
2. As she read the critical reviews, she began redoubting her decision to publish the novel.
3. In moments of uncertainty, it's common for leaders to start redoubting their strategies and choices.
4. He stood at the crossroads, redoubting his career path as new opportunities emerged.
5. Despite the overwhelming evidence, she couldn't help redoubting her initial conclusions about the experiment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redoubting>