

REDRESS

Meaning: Redress: to remedy or set right a wrong or injustice.

1. The organization aims to redress the inequalities faced by marginalized communities.
2. After the scandal, the company sought to redress its reputation through transparency and accountability.
3. She filed a complaint to redress the grievances she experienced at work.
4. The government promised to redress the harm caused by environmental pollution in the area.
5. In his speech, the politician vowed to redress the imbalances in the education system.
6. The company promised to redress the grievances of its employees following the recent layoffs.
7. She sought to redress the imbalance in pay between male and female colleagues in her department.
8. After the incident, the school took steps to redress the situation and ensure the safety of its students.
9. It is essential for leaders to redress any injustices within their organizations to maintain trust.
10. The government implemented new policies to redress environmental damage caused by industrial pollution.
11. After realizing her mistake, she sought to redress the situation by apologizing sincerely.
12. The government promised to redress the grievances of the affected citizens after the disaster.
13. In an effort to redress past injustices, the museum dedicated an entire exhibit to underrepresented artists.
14. He believes that only through education can we redress the misunderstandings that fuel division.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redress>