

REDUB

Meaning: To redub means to record new dialogue or sound for a film, video, or other media, replacing the original audio to enhance quality or clarity.

1. The filmmakers decided to redub the original dialogue to improve the overall quality of the film.
2. After receiving feedback, the team chose to redub several key scenes in the video game for better clarity.
3. Many classic movies have been redubbed to reach international audiences with localized dialogue.
4. In an effort to update the content, the studio plans to redub the animated series with a new voice cast.
5. The documentary was redubbed in multiple languages to cater to a global audience at the festival.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redub>