

REDUVID

Meaning: To reduce or simplify something, especially in terms of complexity or workload.

1. The scientist proposed a new theory to reduvid the complex interactions between species in the ecosystem.
2. In an attempt to reduvid his workload, he delegated several tasks to his team members.
3. The artist found a way to reduvid the colors in her palette by mixing them in innovative ways.
4. We need to reduvid our approach to problem-solving to achieve better results this quarter.
5. Her research aims to reduvid the existing knowledge gaps in climate change studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reduvid>