

REEDLESS

Meaning: Reedless: lacking reeds or any similar vegetation, often resulting in a barren or stark appearance.

1. The landscape was eerily beautiful, with the reedless banks of the river creating a stark contrast against the vibrant autumn foliage.
2. After the storm, the once lush wetlands appeared stark and reedless, revealing the muddy banks beneath.
3. A reedless marsh can be just as fascinating as one filled with greenery, as it exposes hidden ecosystems.
4. The artist captured the essence of the reedless landscape in her painting, emphasizing the beauty of desolation.
5. In the absence of reeds, the lake's surface shimmered under the sun, creating a tranquil yet desolate scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reedless>