

REELER

Meaning: REELER: A device used for winding or pulling in something, often associated with fishing, or a person who feels overwhelmed and disoriented by their responsibilities.

1. The fisherman watched as the reeler spun rapidly, pulling in the catch of the day.
2. After a long day at work, she felt like a reeler, spinning in circles trying to catch up on everything.
3. In the movie, the main character was a reeler, caught between reality and his vivid imagination.
4. During the dance, he twirled her around like a reeler, making her feel weightless and free.
5. As the carnival ride spun faster, the thrill-seekers screamed like reelers caught in a whirlwind of excitement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reeler>