

REFLECTIVE

Meaning: REFLECTIVE (adjective): relating to or characterized by reflection, often prompting personal introspection or contemplation.

1. The artist's reflective style invites viewers to reflect on their own experiences.
2. In psychology, a reflective approach encourages deep analysis of one's thoughts and feelings.
3. Her reflective journaling practice helped her gain insight into her daily challenges.
4. The reflective surfaces in the architecture created stunning visual effects at sunset.
5. During the discussion, he took a reflective stance, considering all perspectives before drawing conclusions.
6. The artist's reflective style encourages viewers to contemplate deeper meanings in their work.
7. In philosophy, a reflective approach often leads to profound insights about the nature of existence.
8. Her reflective nature made her an excellent listener, allowing her to empathize with others effortlessly.
9. The teacher's reflective questions prompted students to think critically about their own assumptions.
10. During meditation, he found that reflective moments enhanced his understanding of personal challenges.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflective>