

REFERENCE

Meaning: REFERENCE (noun): A citation or mention of a source of information used to support an argument or provide additional details.

1. The professor provided a reference to support her argument in the paper.
2. I need to check the reference section of the book for more detailed information.
3. When writing an essay, it's important to include references to credible sources.
4. He cited a historical reference that added depth to his analysis of the topic.
5. The reference you provided was crucial in helping me understand the context better.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reference>