

REFLECT

Meaning: To reflect means to throw back an image or light, or to think deeply or carefully about something.

1. The calm surface of the lake perfectly reflects the surrounding mountains.
2. After much contemplation, she decided to reflect on her past choices before making a decision.
3. He took a moment to reflect on the lessons learned from his recent experiences.
4. The artist aimed to reflect the beauty of nature in her latest painting.
5. Mirrors are designed to reflect light, creating an illusion of space in a room.
6. The calm lake perfectly reflects the vibrant colors of the autumn trees.
7. As she looked into the mirror, she took a moment to reflect on her life choices.
8. The teacher encouraged the students to reflect on their experiences during the field trip.
9. His actions in the meeting will reflect his commitment to the project.
10. The artwork seems to reflect the artist's deep understanding of human emotions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflect>