

REFLECTENT

Meaning: Reflectent: a material that reflects light or other forms of energy, enhancing visual effects or intensity.

1. The artist used a reflectent material to create a mesmerizing effect in her sculpture.
2. During the experiment, we observed that the light was more intense on the reflectent surface.
3. The reflectent properties of the fabric made it ideal for outdoor sports apparel.
4. As the sun set, the lake became a mirror, its surface acting as a reflectent to the vibrant sky.
5. Engineers designed the building with reflectent glass to maximize natural light while minimizing heat gain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflectent>