

REFLECTIVE

Meaning: Reflective: characterized by the ability to mirror or show an image, or involving deep thought and contemplation about one's experiences.

1. The lake's surface was so calm and reflective that it perfectly mirrored the surrounding mountains.
2. During the workshop, we engaged in reflective discussions about our personal growth and experiences.
3. Her reflective nature often led her to ponder the deeper meanings behind everyday occurrences.
4. The teacher assigned a reflective essay to encourage students to think critically about their learning journeys.
5. The artist used reflective materials in her installation to create an immersive experience for viewers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflective>