

REFLECTIVELY

Meaning: Reflectively: in a manner that involves deep or serious thought about past experiences or events.

1. She gazed reflectively out the window, lost in thoughts of the past.
2. The professor spoke reflectively about the impact of history on contemporary society.
3. As he walked through the quiet park, he pondered reflectively on his life choices.
4. The artist approached her canvas reflectively, contemplating the emotions she wanted to convey.
5. In the meeting, she listened reflectively, considering all perspectives before sharing her thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflectively>