

REFLET

Meaning: Reflet (noun): a reflection or image seen in a mirror or on a surface, particularly in the context of light and color.

1. The artist used a mirror to capture the perfect reflet of the landscape in her painting.
2. As the sun set, the reflet of the vibrant colors danced across the water's surface.
3. In the stillness of the morning, the reflet of the mountains created a breathtaking scene.
4. She admired the reflet of her smile in the glass, feeling a surge of confidence.
5. The reflet of the city skyline in the river was a stunning sight during twilight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflet>