

REFLEXIVE

Meaning: Reflexive refers to an action that is directed back at the subject or occurs automatically in response to a stimulus, often without conscious thought.

1. The reflexive nature of the verb made it clear that the action was directed back at the subject.
2. In psychology, reflexive responses can reveal a lot about a person's subconscious thoughts.
3. She often used reflexive language in her writing to emphasize her personal experiences.
4. The dancer's reflexive movements seemed almost instinctual as she performed on stage.
5. His reflexive reaction to criticism was to become defensive rather than reflective.
6. The reflexive nature of the verb made it clear that the subject was also the object of the action.
7. In psychology, reflexive responses can reveal a lot about an individual's subconscious motivations.
8. She admired how the artist's reflexive brushstrokes conveyed emotion and spontaneity.
9. Reflexive pronouns are used when the subject and the object of a sentence refer to the same entity.
10. The reflexive feedback loop in the system ensures that any changes are quickly addressed and corrected.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reflexive>