

REFOCILLATION

Meaning: Refoillation refers to the process of reestablishing or enhancing the foliage of an area, particularly through planting trees or vegetation to improve biodiversity and environmental conditions.

1. The refoillation of the forest led to a significant increase in local biodiversity.
2. During the conference, scientists discussed the implications of refoillation on climate change.
3. The community took part in a refoillation project to restore the natural habitat of the area.
4. Refoillation efforts are crucial for preventing soil erosion and improving air quality.
5. Innovative techniques in refoillation can help mitigate the effects of deforestation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refocillation>