

REFOLD

Meaning: Refold: to fold something again, typically to restore it to a compact or organized shape.

1. Please refold the letter neatly before placing it in the envelope.
2. After reading the map, she had to refold it to fit it back in her pocket.
3. The origami artist showed us how to refold the paper crane for a better shape.
4. He decided to refold the blanket after realizing it was not as tidy as he thought.
5. To save space, I need to refold these clothes and organize them in the drawer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refold>