

REFOREST

Meaning: Reforest: to restore a forested area by planting trees in regions that have been deforested or damaged.

1. Many organizations are working tirelessly to reforest areas that have been devastated by wildfires.
2. To combat climate change, we must reforest large swathes of land that have been cleared for agriculture.
3. The local community came together to reforest the riverbanks, improving both the ecosystem and their surroundings.
4. Reforesting degraded land not only enhances biodiversity but also restores vital habitats for wildlife.
5. Innovative techniques in reforestation are being developed to ensure that we can efficiently reforest even the most challenging terrains.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reforest>