

REFORESTIZATION

Meaning: Reforestation is the process of replanting trees in an area where forests have been depleted, aimed at restoring biodiversity and combating climate change.

1. Reforestation is essential for restoring biodiversity in areas affected by deforestation.
2. The community organized a reforestation initiative to combat the effects of climate change.
3. Reforestation efforts can significantly improve air quality and reduce carbon emissions.
4. Educating local residents about the benefits of reforestation is crucial for its success.
5. Government policies promoting reforestation can lead to healthier ecosystems and improved livelihoods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reforestation>