

REFORTIFY

Meaning: REFORTIFY: To strengthen or reinforce a structure or defense that has weakened or been compromised.

1. The city council decided to refortify the ancient walls to protect against modern threats.
2. After the recent storms, the homeowners knew they had to refortify their roofs to prevent future damage.
3. The military planned to refortify the base's defenses in response to escalating tensions in the region.
4. To ensure the castle's preservation, the archaeologists aimed to refortify its structure using traditional methods.
5. Community leaders organized volunteer efforts to refortify the flood barriers before the next heavy rain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refortify>