

REFRACTABLE

Meaning: Refractable: capable of bending light or other waves as they pass through a material.

1. The material proved refractable, bending light in unexpected directions.
2. In optics, refractable substances are essential for designing effective lenses.
3. Her refractable nature made it difficult for others to predict her reactions.
4. The scientist focused on the refractable properties of the new crystal he discovered.
5. Understanding how light interacts with refractable materials can enhance imaging technology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refractable>