

REFRACTING

Meaning: REFRACTING: the bending of light as it passes through different mediums, resulting in a change of direction and separation of colors.

1. The glass prism is refracting the light into a beautiful spectrum of colors.
2. Scientists are studying how the atmosphere is refracting light from distant stars.
3. By refracting the rays of sunlight, the lens can create a focused beam of energy.
4. The artist captured the effect of refracting water on the canvas with stunning detail.
5. As the waves crashed against the shore, they were refracting the sunlight into dazzling patterns.
6. The glass prism is refracting the sunlight into a beautiful spectrum of colors.
7. Scientists studied how different materials are refracting light in various environments.
8. As the lens began refracting the rays, a clear image of the distant mountain emerged.
9. She marveled at how the water was refracting the underwater landscape so vividly.
10. In his experiment, he focused on refracting sound waves through various mediums.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refracting>