

REFRACTOR

Meaning: A refractor is an optical instrument that uses lenses to bend light and magnify images, commonly used in telescopes and other imaging devices.

1. The refractor telescope allows astronomers to observe distant celestial bodies in greater detail.
2. In physics class, we learned how a refractor bends light to create magnified images.
3. The vintage refractor, with its brass fittings, was a prized possession among stargazers.
4. Using a refractor, the scientist demonstrated how light can be split into its component colors.
5. The design of the refractor has evolved significantly since its inception in the 17th century.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refractor>