

REFUND

Meaning: Refund: a return of money paid for a product or service, typically due to dissatisfaction or a fault.

1. I requested a refund for the faulty product I received.
2. The company processed my refund within three business days.
3. After realizing my mistake, I contacted customer service for a refund.
4. She was relieved when the store manager agreed to issue a refund.
5. The policy clearly states that refunds are only available within thirty days of purchase.
6. After reviewing the complaint, the company agreed to issue a full refund.
7. The store's policy clearly states that refunds are available within thirty days of purchase.
8. She was relieved to find out that she could get a refund for her unused concert tickets.
9. If the service does not meet your expectations, you are entitled to a refund.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refund>