

REFURBISH

Meaning: Refurbish: to renovate or restore something, especially by improving its appearance or functionality.

1. The old theater was refurbished to preserve its historic charm while adding modern amenities.
2. She decided to refurbish her kitchen, giving it a fresh look with new cabinets and countertops.
3. The company plans to refurbish the office space to create a more collaborative work environment.
4. After months of planning, they finally began to refurbish the community park with new playground equipment.
5. The artist was excited to refurbish the vintage furniture she found at the flea market.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refurbish>