

REFURNISHMENT

Meaning: Refurnishment is the process of renovating or redecorating a space by replacing or updating its furnishings to enhance its appearance and comfort.

1. The old café underwent a complete refurnishment, transforming its ambiance into a cozy retreat.
2. After years of wear and tear, the refurnishment of the library brought a fresh and inviting atmosphere.
3. She saved up for months to fund the refurnishment of her living room, eager to create a more modern space.
4. The hotel's recent refurnishment included new furniture and a stylish color palette that delighted guests.
5. A successful refurnishment can breathe new life into a tired space, making it feel more welcoming and vibrant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refurnishment>