

REFUTATION

Meaning: Refutation is the act of disproving or countering an argument, claim, or belief.

1. The scientist's research served as a powerful refutation of the popular myth.
2. In his speech, he provided a clear refutation of the claims made by his opponent.
3. The lawyer's evidence was a compelling refutation of the prosecution's case.
4. Her thorough refutation of the article's arguments left no room for doubt.
5. The debate concluded with a strong refutation that shifted the audience's perspective.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refutation>