

REFUTER

Meaning: Refuter: a person who disproves or counters an argument, claim, or theory.

1. A skilled debater must be prepared to act as a refuter of opposing arguments.
2. The scientist served as a refuter of the claims made in the controversial study.
3. To effectively persuade the audience, she became the refuter of the widely accepted theory.
4. His role as a refuter was crucial in dismantling the flawed logic presented in the article.
5. As a refuter, she provided solid evidence that challenged the prevailing misconceptions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/refuter>