REGRESSIVE

Meaning: Regressive refers to a system or policy that disproportionately disadvantages lower-income individuals or groups, often leading to increased inequality.

1. The regressive tax system disproportionately burdens lower-income families.
2. Many believe that implementing regressive policies can hinder social progress.
3. In psychology, regressive behavior may indicate stress or unresolved trauma.
4. The film's regressive themes drew criticism for failing to evolve with contemporary issues.
5. Some economists argue that regressive measures can exacerbate economic inequality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/regressive