

REILLUMINATION

Meaning: Reillumination refers to the process of restoring or enhancing lighting in an area or structure to improve visibility and aesthetic appeal.

1. The city's reillumination project transformed the once-dim streets into vibrant pathways.
2. After years of neglect, the reillumination of the historic theater brought back its former glory.
3. Community members celebrated the reillumination of the park, which now sparkled with energy at night.
4. Artists were invited to contribute to the reillumination initiative, creating stunning light displays.
5. The reillumination of the ancient ruins allowed visitors to appreciate their beauty in a new light.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reillumination>