

REINFORCEMENT

Meaning: Reinforcement refers to the act of strengthening or supporting something, often through the addition of extra resources or assistance.

1. The teacher provided additional reinforcement to help the students grasp the complex concepts.
2. The soldiers received reinforcement in the form of fresh troops to bolster their defenses.
3. Positive reinforcement can significantly improve a child's behavior and motivation.
4. The construction crew used steel beams as reinforcement to ensure the building's stability.
5. During the therapy session, she focused on reinforcement strategies to promote healthy habits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reinforcement>