

REINFUND

Meaning: Reinfund: to provide additional financial support or funding to a project or budget after an initial allocation.

1. The company decided to reinfund the project after reviewing the initial results.
2. After careful consideration, they agreed to reinfund the team's budget for the upcoming quarter.
3. Investors were pleased to learn that the organization would reinfund their contributions due to the project's success.
4. In an unexpected move, the government announced plans to reinfund the public service initiatives.
5. To support local businesses, the nonprofit organization will reinfund all donations made during the fundraiser.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reinfund>