

REINTEGRATION

Meaning: Reintegration is the process of restoring individuals to a previous state or condition within society, particularly after incarceration or displacement.

1. Reintegration into society can be a challenging process for those who have been incarcerated.
2. The program focuses on the reintegration of refugees, helping them find jobs and housing.
3. Successful reintegration requires support from both the community and the individual.
4. After years of separation, the reintegration of the family was a heartfelt and emotional event.
5. Reintegration strategies must address the psychological needs of returning veterans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reintegration>