

REINVESTMENT

Meaning: Reinvestment refers to the allocation of profits or resources back into a business or community to promote growth and development.

1. Reinvestment in the local community can lead to sustainable development and economic growth.
2. The company's strategy focused on the reinvestment of profits to enhance research and development.
3. After assessing the market, the board agreed that reinvestment in new technologies was essential for future success.
4. Many financial advisors recommend reinvestment of dividends to maximize the potential for compound growth.
5. Reinvestment of funds into renewable energy projects has become a priority for many corporations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reinvestment>