

REJECTABLE

Meaning: REJECTABLE: capable of being dismissed or not accepted due to inadequacy or unsuitability.

1. The committee deemed several proposals rejectable due to their lack of feasibility.
2. In a competitive environment, ideas that are not innovative are often seen as rejectable.
3. Her argument was so flawed that it became entirely rejectable in the eyes of her peers.
4. The editor highlighted that many submissions were rejectable without further consideration.
5. During the meeting, they identified aspects of the project that were clearly rejectable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rejectable>