

RELECTION

Meaning: 'Relection' refers to the act of thoughtful consideration or contemplation regarding one's experiences or choices.

1. The artist's relection on her life's journey added depth to her latest exhibition.
2. In the quiet moments of solitude, he found space for deep relection on his choices.
3. Her relection on past mistakes helped her grow into a more confident person.
4. The book offers a profound relection of societal values through its characters.
5. During the meeting, he shared a thoughtful relection on the project's impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relection>