

RELEVANCE

Meaning: Relevance refers to the importance or significance of a topic or information in relation to a particular context or situation.

1. The relevance of climate change discussions has increased significantly in recent years.
2. In academic research, the relevance of a study can influence funding opportunities.
3. She questioned the relevance of the information presented during the seminar.
4. The team's success hinged on the relevance of their strategies to the current market conditions.
5. His comments about social media highlighted the relevance of digital communication in today's world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relevance>