

RELEVANT

Meaning: Relevant: closely connected or appropriate to the matter at hand.

1. The research findings are particularly relevant to current discussions about climate change.
2. She always shares articles that are relevant to our work in the marketing department.
3. It's important to consider relevant factors before making a final decision.
4. The speaker provided several relevant examples that helped clarify her points.
5. His experience in the industry makes him a relevant candidate for the position.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relevant>