

REVELATION

Meaning: Revelation: a sudden realization or insight that reveals a significant truth or understanding.

1. The artist's latest work offers a profound revelation about the nature of human existence.
2. After years of research, the scientist experienced a sudden revelation that changed the course of his study.
3. Her speech provided a revelation that resonated deeply with the audience, sparking meaningful conversations.
4. The novel's twist at the end served as a revelation that redefined the entire story.
5. Through meditation, he found a revelation that helped him understand his life's purpose.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revelation>