RELIABILITY

Meaning: Reliability is the quality of being consistently dependable and trustworthy in performance or results.

1. Reliability is a key factor in building trust between businesses and their customers.
2. The reliability of the data collected during the study was crucial for the accuracy of the results.
3. In today's fast-paced world, technology companies are often judged by the reliability of their products.
4. She admired the reliability of her friend's advice, knowing it was always sound and well thought out.
5. For many consumers, the reliability of a car is more important than its brand or price.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reliability